Morsel for Meditation

The whole person is a person who is on the one side open to God, and on the other side open to other people. It has been said that there is no true person unless there are two entering into communication with one another. The isolated individual is not a real person. A real person is one who lives in and for others. And the more personal relationships we form with others, the more we truly realize ourselves as persons.

Kallistos Ware, Ordinary Graces: Christian Teachings on the Interior Life (Bell Tower, 2000), 28.

Accept surprises that upset your plans, shatter your dreams, give a completely different turn to your day and – who knows? – to your life. Leave the Father free himself to weave the pattern of your days.
