Morsel for Meditation

I ought to study Christ as a living Saviour more,—as a Shepherd, carrying the sheep He finds,—as a King, reigning in and over the souls He has redeemed,—as a Captain, fighting with those who fight with me (Psalm 35), as One who has engaged to bring me through all temptations and trials, however impossible to flesh and blood. I am often tempted to say, ‘How can this Man save us? How can Christ in heaven deliver me from lusts which I feel raging in me, and nets I feel enclosing me?’ This is the father of lies again! ‘He is able to save unto the uttermost.’ I ought to study Christ as an Intercessor. He prayed most for Peter, who was to be most tempted. I am on His breast-plate. If I could hear Christ praying for me in the next room, I would not fear a million of enemies. Yet the distance makes no difference; He is praying for me.

Only the Eucharistic minister may dip the bread into the chalice. If you wish only to receive a blessing, please join us at the altar rail, crossing your arms over your chest.
